

DALILA

I was born in Milan, the city that more than anything else influenced my style and taste.

Since I was a kid, i've had the incredible chance to travel the world with my mum and I lived in different countries and cities such as Thessaloniki (Greece), Kuwait City, Aix-En-Provence (France), New York and Los Angeles. This is the biggest emotional and cultural baggage of my life that I reflected in my music.

I love to explore, discover the world and meet people.

I am a communicator by nature and honestly my best and most beautiful way to communicate has always been through music, the universal language of them all.

My passion developed so early, I was seen as a "child prodigy" around Liguria, an Italian region where I started to perform pop covers at the age of 10 at local fashion shows and events. In my teenage period I attended many competitions and had the exciting chance to make it to the final for “Concorso Canoro delle due Riviere” at 16.

Beyond being a singer, I like to co-produce my songs. Ideas come up to my mind in a very natural way and all of the songs written until now, came from one of my inspirations.

Dance has been a great part of my life too, I took classes at M.A.S. and have always been experimenting my dance style through master classes. Right now my music reflects an eclectic background made up of my itinerant experiences and my passions that, beyond music, are in art and fashion.
