

Monet Guthrie Shelton

"If you can speak, you can sing!" This is the mantra that has helped shape Monet Guthrie Shelton's 18 year professional music career. She thrives on helping people identify their unique voice. This powerhouse humbly wears the hat of vocal producer, arranger, writer, educator, vocalist and business owner.

Monet has provided background vocal support and production to top artists such as Miley Cyrus, Ariana Grande, Kim Burrell, Demi Lovato, VaShawn Mitchell, Kaleo, Jason Nelson, With Lions, Jonathan Nelson and Yolanda Adams. In addition to this hands on work with Grammy Award-winning artists, Monet nurtures the next generation of burgeoning young musicians, by providing vocal instruction and performance education with the John F. Kennedy Center for Performing Arts.

In 2017, Monet co-founded STEMS, an entertainment service company that specializes in studio and live vocal production, artist placement and development, and performance education. The STEMS mission is to continuously generate a masterful sound that is recognized across genres and nations.
